Start Screen

In order to help rationalize the number of options available when Dreamweaver is first opened, there is a Start screen that appears initially, or when no other documents are open.

The Start screen contains a variety of options for opening and creating documents, and also for obtaining help on using Dreamweaver CS6.

Click here to open a previously viewed file

Click here to create a new file

6

Check this box to disable the Start screen

Click here to access online help options for using the program